CBI PROBE INTO A-320 DEAL

*308. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH :

SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN :

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to refer to the answer to Starred Question 388 given in the Rajya Sabha on 23rd March, 1993 and state :

(a) whether the Central Bureau of Investigation Which registered a case on 29th March, 1990 to probe into Rs. 2,500 crore Air Bus A-320 deal involving the alleged kickbacks of about Rs. 250 crore have completed its investigation;

(b) what are the details on the basis of which investigation is being carried out;

(c) what are the details of the investigation and whether Government have framed any charge-sheet against the persons involved;

(d) if not, what are the reasons for the delay in completing the investigation;

(e) by when the investigation is likely to be completed; and

(f) what is the total expenditure Government have so far incurred on the investigation of the deal and the names of persons who visited foreign countries in this regard and the expenditure incurred by Government on their visits abroad in each case ?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD) : (a) No, Sir.

(b) On the basis of source information and examination of records, Central Bureau of Investigation had registered a case against certain former officers of the Government/Indian Airlines and other parties for alleged corruption in the matter of purchase of Airbus A-320 aircraft.

(c) while most of the investigations in India has been completed, investigations abroad are still in progress. No charge-sheet has been filed so far.

(d) The delay in completion of the investigation is mainly due to the reason that investigations have to be conducted in foreign countries like U.S.A., U. K., France, Switzerland, Nigeria etc. through Letters Rogatory issued by the competent court on India. The investigation;: abroad are time-consuming due tu complexity of legal procedures involved.

(e) While steps are being taken to expedite the investigation, it is difficult at this stage to indicate any definite timeframe for its completion because of the complexity of procedures involved in investigations abroad.

(IE) An expenditure of Rs. 3,29,491 das been incurred towards professional services abroad in connection with the investigation. Two officers of CBI namely Shri R. S. Dwivedi, Deputy Superintendent of Police and Shri R. K. Dutta, Superintendent of Police had visited U.S.A. during 1991-92 for assisting the U.S. authorities in the execution of Letters Rogatory. The Expenditure on their deputation amounted to Rs. 2,52,530 exclusive of accommodation.
